“You Can’t take it with You” – You have probably heard stories about people who used various schemes to beat the system, trying to take some of their valuables to heaven. Maybe you have not heard this one: A man had a collection of valuables he really wanted to take with him. He bound them carefully in a package and told his wife he was placing them in the attic right above his bed, he hoped to die in bed and that as his spirit soared upward, he hoped to pick up the package and take it with him to heaven. He did die in bed as he had planned. Sometime later, his wife remembered his scheme, and she and the children went upstairs to see if he had been successful. The bag was still there where he had put it. “Well,” she exclaimed, “Maybe the rascal should have placed it in the cellar!” (Preacher Talk: Faulkner University, Spring 2021)

Worship Thought: <sup>24</sup>and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” <sup>25</sup>In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” <sup>26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup,
