And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Created Full Grown

The proposal that the earth is billions of years old is partially based on calculations as to how long it takes for organic material to turn into oil.

If you could have met Adam the day after he was created, how old would you have guessed him to be. He was, of course, created full grown. There is no reason to assume that other things created were also created full grown. A full-grown earth, planned by a Creator who knew what would be needed, would have had mountains, canyons, hills, and petroleum.

That is easier to believe than that the earth began with nothing and gradually, accidentally became the earth we now have.

That is our choice: an intelligent, all-powerful Creator created a full-grown earth with intelligent, rational beings capable of seeing, hearing and talking.

Worship Thought: ²⁴*and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."* ²⁵*In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."* ²⁶*For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup,* you proclaim forevermore the Lord's death until he comes. (1 Cor. 11:24-26)
