And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Upcoming Events & News

Morning Bible Class: Matthew 22:41-46

Evening Bible Study Topic: At what point does marriage take place?

July 28: Potluck Dinner after the morning worship service.

July 15-22: Be praying for Damien while he is on the Jamaican Campaign.

The campaign from Jamaica might not happen, there is no electricity or internet in the town they were heading too. Please keep Jamaica in your prayers. Crystal also has family in Jamaica.

Please keep all of the mission efforts we support in your prayers.

We are commanded to pray “for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way” (1 Tim. 2:2). The prayers are for our elected leaders, but the requested results are for us. Quiet, peaceful and godly lives are more readily lived when the population is orderly and where there is no religious persecution. Those conditions are dependent on the actions of our elected leaders, for whom we are, therefore, to pray.

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

James 5:13-15 - ¹³ Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. ¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven."

Since the Bible says "Baptism...now saves you" (1 Peter 3:21), what about those who are not baptized?

When Jesus said, 'Go into all the world' he probably did not mean stay at home and argue against it.
