Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

In Philippians 3, Paul passionately argues that it is futile to seek “confidence in the flesh” (v. 3). “In the flesh” alludes to circumcision, which some teachers were arguing was required to be a part of God’s people. More broadly, “confidence in the flesh” references relying on any human status or achievement to be right with God - such as adherence to Jewish law (v. 9) – instead of relying on Christ (see also Romans 8:5-9). Encountering Jesus made Paul realize that relying on human strength or achievement was “garbage” (Phil. 3:8) – a word that can also be translated “dung.”

Luis & Rosa Guerra: pregnancy!

Sue Griffiths: friend of Mark needs an aorta valve replacement. This won’t take place until April 2025.

Our Country: please pray for our country and government.

Prayer is a privilege – don’t forget to use it! After all, “The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.” James 5:16 (NLT)

James challenges his readers about the use and power of words. He makes several analogies to small things that have a big impact: a horse’s bit, a ship’s rudder, a tiny spark. In the same way, controlling the relatively small tongue can keep the “whole body in check” (James 3:2).

The book of Proverbs also has a great deal to say about the use of the tongue and its consequences. This topic is referenced more than any other topic in Proverbs.
