And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

In Gal. 6:9, Paul counters the human tendency to quit with these words: “Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.” The Greek word translated “become weary” (enkakeo) means “to be utterly spiritless, to be wearied out, exhausted.” The word “give up” (eklyo) literally means “to dissolve,” but the idea is used figuratively to mean “weaken, relax, faint, exhaust.” In Mt. 15:32 it has the meaning of collapse. Put positively, the message for believers of any era is to press on!

Prayer is a privilege – don't forget to use it! After all, “The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results.” James 5:16 (NLT)

The gospel of John; 1,2,3 John; and Revelation were all written by John, who called himself “the disciple whom Jesus loved” Jn. 14:23; 21:20. As one of the twelve, he was part of Jesus' inner circle, which included his brother James and Peter. They witnessed Jesus' transfiguration in Mt. 17:1-8 and the raising of Jairus' daughter in Lk 8:49-56. And they were nearby in the garden of Gethsemane Mt. 26:36-38. Christ's love motivated John and is a central theme of his writings. We see this clearly stated in 1 Jn. 3:1 “See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called the children of God!” And “This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us” v. 16. The magnitude of God's love and how we are called to love in response is a key theme of 1 Jn. 4:7-21.
