And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Knowing the Sheperd's voice: Much of Jesus' teaching was down to earth and practical, so it is understandable why people were enthralled with it. We see this in John 10 when Jesus speaks of shepherding and sheep, which were commonly understood in the life of the ancient Israelites. It also echoed back to Israel's past relationship with God. In the O.T., Ps. 23:1; Ez. 34 and Zech. 10:2-12. Jesus also pursued the shepherd/sheep motif in Lk. 15 in His three parables about lost things (a sheep, a coin, and a son). May we be careful as we listen for Jesus' voice and avoid foolishly dismissing it. The Shepherd speaks clearly, and His sheep hear his voice – John 10:4.

Prayer is a privilege – don't forget to use it! After all, "The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results." James 5:16 (NLT)

Love Through Prayer: Luke 6:28 – Pray for those who mistreat you. The challenging commands that Jesus gives in Lk. 6:27-31 are clear: we are to love, bless, and do good to others. By reading further we see the rationale for these exhortations: "Love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful" (vv. 35-36). When followers of Jesus flip the script on hate, abuse and selfishness, they demonstrate their kinship to their heavenly Father whose care is shared without discrimination. Paul's words in Eph. 5:1-2 carry the same sentiment: "Follow God's example, therefore, as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God." It is sometimes difficult to pray for difficult people – but it is important for you to do so – for your soul's sake. Learn compassion as God is compassionate!
