Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Psalm 66 is a worship song praising God for rescuing His people from an enemy threat. Scholars suggest this Psalm was written by King Hezekiah after God miraculously defeated the Assyrians in response to his prayer of deliverance (2 Chron. 32:1-22). The offering of rams, bulls, and goats (Ps. 66:15) are what a king would sacrifice to God (2 Chron. 30:24). The psalmist recalls the miraculous deliverances in their history – led out of Egypt, across the Red Sea, through the wilderness, and into the promised land (ps. 66:1-12). The second part of the song is a personal thanksgiving for God answering his prayer (13-20). The psalmist speaks of an important condition for answered prayer: "If I had not confessed the sin of my heart, the Lord would not have listened." (v. 18, NLT)

Shining Stars: (Phil. 2:15-16) As believers in Jesus, we are to "shine among (non-believers) like stars in the sky" (Phil. 2:15) as we obey the Great Commission: "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you" (Mt. 28:19-20). Christ said, "While I am in the world, I am the light of the world" (Jn. 9:5). He brought light into the world, yet many people still loved the darkness (evil) (3:19). Knowing He would only be on earth a short time, He called His followers to spread the good news of the gospel - to be "the light of world" (Mt. 5:14). As "people of the light" (Lk. 16:8), we have the Holy Spirit to help us "not run or labor in vain" (Phil. 2:16).

that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. (Phil. 2:15-16)
