God's Unexpected Ways

God often uses unexpected things to accomplish His perfect purposes. Writing about His plan to draw wayward humanity near through Jesus' loving death for us on a cross, Paul concludes, "But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong" (1 Cor. 1:27). The world expected divine wisdom to look like our own and to come with an irresistible force. Instead, Jesus came humbly and gently to save us from our sins and so became for us "wisdom from God – that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption" (v. 30). The eternal and all wise God became a human baby who would grow to adulthood and suffer and die and be raised to life in order to lovingly show us the way home to Him. He loves to use humble means and people to accomplish great things we could never achieve in our own strength. If your willing, He may even use you!

Our Anchor of Hope: The author of Hebrews is never identified. But no matter, the author clearly understood that his readers needed perseverance to face trials and persecution. Throughout the book, readers are encouraged to endure and hold fast to Christ (2:1-4; 3:7-4:13; 5:11-6:2). And in 10:39, they are reminded that as believers in Jesus they "do not belong to those who shrink back and are destroyed, but to those who have faith and are saved." Then in chapter 11, know as the "hall of faith," the author commends the many men and women of the Bible who lived by faith and sometimes died because of it. Because of their witness and example, believers in Jesus are prompted to "run with perseverance the race marked out for them." (12:1). And he bolsters them with God's promise: "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." (13:5).
