And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Embracing Christ's Truth: We all long for what is real, but sometimes the truth isn't attractive to us. Close to the time of His death, Jesus declared, "I am...the truth" (Jn. 14:6). His disciples were wondering how they could get to the Father's house that Jesus spoke so longingly about in verses 2-3. They failed to see that Jesus standing in front of them was the answer. They struggled to understand that He would bring victory through His own sacrifice. Isaiah prophesied that the coming Messiah would have no beauty or majesty, "nothing in his appearance that we should desire him" (Isa. 53:2). Much of what Jesus said was so challenging and unexpected that it turned religious people against Him (Jn. 11:45-48). Yet He gave an open invitation to know the truth and find real life. "If you know me, you will know my Father as well" (Jn. 14:7). In the midst of an airbrushed and unrealistic world, we can embrace that beautiful, raw truth today. (Borrowed)

Friends of Family in our Prayers...

Bob Molinary: a friend of Monti and a brother in Christ, he lives in Leesburg. Bob will undergo eye surgery tomorrow and has asked for prayers. He has been going blind in one eye and is hoping to get that fixed.

Tom & Lois Breakfield: Judy Moreland's sister has dementia.

Tom, her caregiver, is recovering from surgery.

Hannelore Muller: Marion's mother, hospice care.

Teresa Berens: a friend of Mark, recovering from major surgery. She is about to start Chemotherapy.

Our Country: please pray for our country and government.

Prayer is a privilege – don't forget to use it! After all, "The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results." James 5:16 (NLT)

Insight: In Jn. 13-17, we encounter a scene best viewed with reverence and awe. These chapters contain Christ's final instructions to His disciples before His arrest and crucifixion. Immediately after Judas had departed to betray Christ, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in him" (Jn. 13:31). The reality of his violent death for us was the pivot point of Christ's mission. At first, the disciples couldn't accept this. The crucifixion brought the rawest truth they would absorb. Yet, His death was essential to providing restoration to our heavenly Father. Jesus promised, "My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you?" "I will come back and take you to be with me." The culmination of truth - Eternal Joy with our Father!
