And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Gather Strength in God: 2 Cor. 12:9 - But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Paul wrote these words to the church at Corinth. Enduring a season when he was overwhelmed with personal struggle, Paul begged God to remove what he described as “a thorn in my flesh” (v. 7) His affliction might have been a physical ailment or a spiritual one, he does not explain. Like Jesus in the garden the night before his crucifixion (Lk. 22:39-44), Paul repeatedly asked God to remove his suffering. The Holy Spirit responded by assuring him that He’d provide the strength needed. Paul learned, “When I am weak, then I am strong” (2 Cor. 12:10). Oh, the thorns we experience in this life! Where do we turn when we need strength? We can gather up God’s strength for what we are facing. In His strength, we find our own. In 2 Cor. 12:2-10, Paul deliberately boasted about his many spectacular visions, (see also Acts 9:1-9; 16:6-10), to refute false teachers who said he wasn’t a genuine apostle. Although such boasting was distasteful to him, he believed it was necessary to deal with the misguided spirituality and pride of his opponents. He was given a “thorn in the flesh” so that Christ’s power might be proclaimed. This thorn implied that Paul had endured severe pain. We don’t beyond a doubt what that thorn was, but we know its intent: to keep him humble on account of his “surpassingly great revelations” (2 Cor. 12:7). When you struggle, where or to whom do you turn to for help? In Christ I can do all things! Paul turned to Christ - For when I am weak, then I am strong. (2 Cor. 12:10)
