And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Casting Cares: 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on Him because he cares for you.” This is part of the peace I believe God wants us to enjoy in the relationship we can experience with Him through Christ. First Peter 5:7 reminds us to cast all our anxiety on him because he cares for us. This verse says that God wants to take on our worries and concerns. Why? This is because He cares that much for us. We can give our cares to God rather than allowing them to swim around in our hearts as we try to figure them out by ourselves. Casting our anxiety on God is a form of humility that acknowledges that He is much more capable of handling our concern than we are (vs. 6). Although something may pop up to cause us to suffer (vs. 10), we can rest in His care and provision. 1 Peter 5:6-9 So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor. Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you. Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. Stand firm against him and be strong in your faith. Remember that your family of believers all over the world is going through the same kind of suffering you are. Insight: Giving our worries to God acknowledges His sovereign and loving care for us. Jesus devoted a portion of his sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5-7) to the topic of worry (Mt. 6:25-34). He specifically told his listeners not to worry about their life – including food and clothing – but instead to observe birds and flowers and see how lovingly God provides for them. Noting His care for them, we better understand His love and care for us, for we are much more valuable than birds (vs. 26). Christ said, “Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?” (vs. 27). Instead, we are invited to focus on God – who is so much bigger and greater than we are – and entrust our concerns to His loving care. (vv. 33:34; 1 Peter 5:7).
