And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

God Covers Our Sin: John 8:11 – “Neither do I condemn you, Jesus declared, “Go and leave your life of sin.”

Jesus offers us an infinitely more powerful and important way to deal with our sin – no cover-up but complete forgiveness. A good example of this shows up in the beginning of Jn. 8 in the story of a woman who was caught in adultery (vv. 3-4). The teachers of the law wanted Jesus to do something about the woman and her sins. The law said she should be stoned, but Christ didn’t bother to entertain what the law did or didn’t say. He simply offered a reminder that all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. He told those standing there that those who hadn’t sinned should throw the first stone. No one threw a rock. Jesus then offered this woman a fresh start. He said He didn’t condemn her and instructed her to leave her life of sin behind. Jesus gave her the solution to forgive her sin and “type” a new way of living over her past. That same offer is available to us by His grace.

Insight to Jn. 8:1-11: In John 7, we learn that Jesus was teaching and healing in Galilee and staying out of Judea “because the Jewish leaders there were look for a way to kill Him” (v. 1). Whether out of fear, Jealousy, or something else, they wanted Him gone. Yet when the feast of Tabernacles approached, Jesus traveled to Jerusalem to observe the weeklong festival. During the festival, the Jewish leaders attempted to have Jesus seized (vv. 30, 43-44). Instead of heading home after the festival, He stayed in Judea (7:53-8:1). He went to the temple to preach, and there the teachers of the law and Pharisees brought the woman caught in adultery (8:6). However, their attempt to entrap Jesus failed (v. 9). Have you tried to stone anyone about their sins lately? Forgiveness is God’s way!
