And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Evening: The Promise of Answered Prayer

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Promise Fulfilled: “Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord would fulfill his promises to her!” (Lk. 1:45)

Mary the mother of Jesus, was a teenage when an angel visited her. The incredible news brought by Gabriel must have been overwhelming, yet she willingly accepted the task with grace (Lk. 1:36). But perhaps her visit with her elderly relative Elizabeth – who was also in the midst of a miraculous pregnancy brought her comfort as Elizabeth enthusiastically confirmed Gariel’s words that she was the mother of the promised Messiah (vv. 39-45). As we grow and mature in Christ, we learn that He keeps His promises. He kept His promise of a child for Elizabeth and her husband Zechariah (vv. 57-58). And that son, John the Baptist, became the harbinger of a promise made hundreds of years before – one that would change the course of humanity’s future. The promised Messiah – the Savior of the world – was coming (Mt. 1:21-23).

Insight into Luke 1:26-38: In this first chapter of Lk., we see an example of doubt and one of faith. Zechariah received news that his long-standing prayer for a baby had been answered (v. 13). But rather than accept God’s gift, Zechariah doubted (v. 18). Later, Gabriel announced to Mary that she had been chosen to bear God’s Son. Her words mirrored Zechariah’s (v. 34), but, unlike Zechariah, Mary hadn’t asked for this blessing from God. She wasn’t objecting; she was only confused. When the angel clarified, Mary agreed with God’s plan (v. 38). Faith doesn’t preclude confusion, but it does require partnering with God in His work.
