And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Choices And Consequences: Gen. 3:6, “When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food...she took some and ate it.”

Choices can have massive consequences. Though warned, Adam and Eve couldn’t have envisioned the disastrous ramifications of their choice on all of creation. God had told them they were “free to eat from any tree in the garden” (2:16), save one, the tree in “the middle of the garden” (3:3). But deceived by that wily serpent Eve “took some and ate it” (v. 6). Then Adam followed, also choosing to eat the fruit God forbade. So much destruction, heartbreak, and ruin came because of one choice. Every time we ignore God’s wisdom and choose another path, we invite calamity. It may seem that our choice is insignificant or only affects us; however, our narrow understanding or fleeting desires can easily lead us into a world of trouble. Choosing God’s way, though, leads us to life and flourishing.

Insight to Genesis 3:1-7: In the creation account, Adam and Eve were the only creatures privileged to be created “in [God’s] own image” (Gen. 1:27) and given His own “breath of life” (2:7). They were also given the freedom to choose how they would live (vv. 16-17). Adam and Eve made their decision and brought sin and death into the world (3:1-7). When God chose the Israelites to be His covenant people, they were also given a choice of whether to obey Him (Deut. 11:26-28): 30:15-20). The choices they made would result in radically different outcomes- “life and prosperity, death and destruction” (30:15). Moses encouraged them to make the right choice: “I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life” (v. 10). Jesus offers us the choice between the narrow road “that leads to life” and the broad road “that leads to destruction” (Mt. 7:13-14). Like Moses, I would encourage you to choose life.
