And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

James 4:7 - Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Mark 16:16 - Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Everybody Worships: Acts 17:22 “People of Athens I see that in every way you are very religious.”

We may not bow down to Apollo or Zeus today, but society is no less religious. “Everybody worships,” novelist David Foster Wallace said, adding this warning: “If you worship money and things...then you will never have enough...Worship your body and beauty...and you will always feel ugly...worship your intellect...you will end up feeling stupid.” Our secular age has its own gods, and they are not benign. After mentioning that the people of Athens were very religious, the apostle then described the one true God as the Creator of all things (vv. 24-26) who wants to be known (v. 27) and who has revealed Himself through the resurrection of Jesus (v. 31). Unlike Apollo or Zeus, this God isn’t made by human hands. Unlike money, looks, or intelligence, worshipping Him won’t ruin us. Our God is whatever we rely on to give us purpose and security. Thankfully, when every earthy god fails us, the one true God is ready to be found (v. 27). What god’s do you seek society worshipping today? What do you rely on to give you purpose and security? The one true God doesn’t live in temples made by man; He doesn’t need man – Man needs God. Who are what do you worship! (borrowed – Sheridan Voysey)
