And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Scripture Reading:

Worship A.M: Genesis 4:1-5

Sermon Topics:

Morning: Problems in Worship

Evening: Rev. 8:1-5

Genesis 4:1-5 - Now Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, "I have gotten a man with the help of the LORD." And again, she bore his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain a worker of the ground. In the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground, and Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and his offering, but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his face fell.

You Can Trust God: Mt. 7:9-11

As we all know, life oftentimes confronts us with unexpected or painful circumstances. During such troubling moments, we can rest on this essential truth: The Lord is perfect in His love. Consider 1 Jn. 1:5: "God is light, and in Him there is no darkness at all." In other words, everything our heavenly Father does is righteous. And if He is a God of love, then it is impossible for Him to mistreat any of His children. We can be assured that whatever He places or permits in our life will turn out for our good, His motives are pure. Jesus demonstrated this deep care for us when He offered His blood on the cross – there exist no greater display of love the giving one's life for someone else (Jn. 15:13). Christ, the perfect lamb, was willing to die in our place so we could have an eternal relationship with the Father. If God gave us His Son to take care of our greatest need, then we can trust Him to provide for all areas of our life. When difficulty arises, remember how much God loves you. Even when circumstances are painful, you can be confident that because of the heavenly Father's love, you are always held in His capable and caring hands.
