Breakfast and lunch will be included – any Plymouth member may attend for free – donation for meals is asked. But you will still need a ticket – we are limiting the seminar to 50 attendees. Flyer is on the bulletin board.

See Charlie for Tickets.

Prov. 29:25 - The fear of man lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD is safe.

Scripture Reading:

Worship A.M: Eph. 5:17-21

Sermon Topics:

Morning: Worship in Song

Evening: Rev. 8:6-13

Eph. 5:17-21- “Therefore do not be foolish but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.”

Growing in Faith, Hebrews 5:12-14

Our heavenly Father desires that we grow from spiritual infancy to maturity (1 Peter 2:2-3). Listening to God is a necessary discipline for living a life of faith. Here are several more essential practices: 1) God desires that we obey him. Some of His teachings are easy to follow, while others are difficult. Choosing our own way might feel good at first, but the end result is always regret. On the other hand, every act of obedience builds faith.

2) God teaches us to depend on Him. At times, He may call us to something that seems impossible. But when our strength or ability is inadequate to achieve what He requires, we learn to rely on His almighty power.

3) God wants us to wait on Him. We would like everything to happen according to our own preferences and timetable. But the Lord's way is best, and He desires for us to trust Him and be patient. Scripture teaches us to confess sin, repent, and learn from our missteps. And while God doesn't expect perfection, He does want us to continually seek His presence. Our loving Father longs for every believer to have an abundant, meaningful life in Him. For this reason, He given us His Holy Spirit to help us to reach our

*God-given potential, that we may ever become more like Jesus! Eph. 3:16-19
