And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

"Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." Mt. 26:41

Scripture Reading:

Worship A.M: Mt. 6:9-13

Sermon Topics:

Morning: Worship in Prayer

Evening: Rev. 9:14-29

Mt. 6:9-13- Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Waiting for God (Genesis 3:1-8)

Our culture is an “instant” society. A fast pace isn’t necessarily bad, but we should guard against becoming so set on immediate fulfillment that we can’t wait for God’s timing. In Genesis 15:4-5, after Abraham shared frustration about him and Sarah not having any children, God revealed the couple would have a son and innumerable descendants would follow. Abraham believed God but eventually decided to handle matters on his own, building a family through Sarah’s servant (Gen. 16:1-4) at Sarah’s request. Abraham probably rationalized his decision, figuring that the Lord wanted him to have a son – and since it seemed impossible any other way, surely this must be what the Lord wanted him to do. But it wasn’t! Abraham had to deal with his actions’ consequences, including both jealousy and resentment between Sarah and Hagar. These problems in turn created further difficulties, both in the short term and throughout history. Though the Lord was faithful it took 14 years, Sarah gave birth to a son and named him Isaac.

Like Abraham, you might believe God’s promises but prefer instant results. Or you may just prefer doing things your own way. Instead, ask the Father to lead you. Then wait for Him. His way may not be what you think or want, but his way is always what is best.

Isaiah 40:31 but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.
