And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. (Hebrews 10:23-24)

Scripture Reading:

Worship A.M: Revelation 1:4-6

Sermon Topics:

Morning: The Kingdom of God

Evening: Rev. 9:13-21

Revelation 1:4-6 - John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Alone with God, Mark 1:35-39

Is prayer part of your daily schedule? In thinking about your answer, don't include times when your attention is divided; consider only the occasions when you are fully focused on God. While prayer at any time is good, we also need to have a set time and place where we meet with the Lord each day. Even though Jesus was the Son of God, He knew the importance of solitary prayer time. He didn't do anything on His own initiative but lived in dependence on the Father. In today's reading, we don't know exactly what Jesus prayed. But when the disciples interrupted His morning prayer time, it was obvious that in communicating with His Father, He had received direction for that day – to “go somewhere else” to preach. Jesus was the perfect example of a prayer led life. Since we are his followers, shouldn't we follow in His footsteps, wouldn't it make sense for us to meet with God in preparation for each day (Ps. 5:3)? This is the time to lay our concerns at His feet and seek His guidance for each day and each major decision of our life. Although many things demand our time and attention, we should strive to make prayer an important daily routine. After all, just what is our priority?

Family in Our Prayers....
